Russell,

Thank you so much for helping me with my divorce. I was very scared when I first walked into your office last spring after having been grilled by my ex's attorney. It was such a relief to get you in my corner that day. You are a great attorney and I would highly recommend you to anyone that needs an attorney that can be as multifaceted as you. You have the big brother side that looks out for you, the fatherly side that tries to get everyone to work things out to everyone's benefit, the friend side that makes you feel as I can trust you with my secrets, and then the pitbull side when things get rough!

My life is so much better now, thank you so very much for all you have done for me. I do hope that I will never need your services again, but should I need you.....I will definitely call!

My best to you and yours,

Michele
