

Russell,

Thanks for your help in my recent divorce. After being served with divorce papers and finding out my wife wanted everything I had earned over the last sixty years, it was good to get help from a competent litigator.

My ex-wife wanted me to pay her attorney's bills, her credit card bills, her medical bills and every other bill she had ever gotten. You really helped minimize the damage my ex and her attorney tried to impose on me. Thanks for your help.

I will definitely use you in my next divorce. GO DAWGS!

Thanks.
